

SAYA NO UTA

SAYA NO UTA
THE SONG OF SAYA

Rot. Decay. A wasteland of twisted, pulsing flesh.

Sakisaka Fuminori survives a terrible accident only to find himself alone in a nightmare with no escape. His friends offer him comfort and support, but their warmth cannot reach his frozen soul. Then he meets a mysterious girl named Saya, and little by little, his madness begins to infect the world.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ

This computer game is a work of fiction intended for consumption by mature adults only. It contains artistic depictions of sexual acts as a central element of the story, and asserts that sex is an important part of adult relationships. You must be at least 18 years old to play this game or view its content. No character engaged in any sexually explicit activity is intended to be under 18 years of age, and no actual minor was employed in the creation of this game. Any similarity to real or imagined persons, places, or organizations is purely coincidental.

Please note that the completely fictional sexual encounters depicted in this game do not always include safe sex practices, nor do they necessarily demonstrate the full range of sensitivity, communication, and intimacy necessary to sustain a real life interpersonal relationship.

Sakisaka Fuminori

"Why, Saya? Why are you so good to me?"

The story's protagonist. Following a terrible accident, he finds himself trapped on the boundary between nightmare and reality.

Saya

"You're all I have. My precious Fuminori."

A mysterious girl who encounters Fuminori while searching for her missing father. Their meeting changes them both in ways neither could have imagined.

Tonoh Koji

"Fuminori just needs a little more time."

Fuminori's best friend. While disturbed by Fuminori's strange behavior, he nevertheless struggles to maintain their friendship.

Tsukuba Yoh

"I just want you to know that you're not alone."

Omi's best friend. Has feelings for Fuminori, but is finding it difficult to deal with the changes in his behavior since the accident. Unlike the assertive Omi, she tends to go along with what other people want.

Takahata Omi

"He looks at us like we're not even human!"

Koji's girlfriend. A kind woman who tries to help her friend Yoh cope with the changes that have driven her and Fuminori apart.

Tanbo Ryoko

"You have to trust us a little more."

Fuminori's chief physician, whom he has visited for regular checkups ever since the accident. She seems to have some connection to Ogai Masahiko, Saya's father.
